HSBC Ireland appoints new Head of Aircraft Leasing Coverage

The latest appointment further strengthens HSBC's offering in the sector

HSBC Ireland has appointed Philip Greene as Head of Aircraft Leasing Coverage within the Corporate Banking business to meet demand within the thriving sector. The role will be based in Dublin.

Philip will assume responsibility for the provision of dedicated coverage for HSBC's Irish based aircraft leasing customers and for driving co-ordination across HSBC's product offering.

A former senior manager with Bank of Ireland Corporate Banking, Philip brings a wealth of experience to his new position, specialising in aircraft leasing. Philip is also a qualified chartered accountant, with 13 years' experience working in the financial services sector.

Speaking of the appointment, Alan Duffy, CEO of HSBC Ireland said: "Globally, Ireland is seen as a world leader in the area of aircraft leasing. As the industry continues to go from strength to strength, our appointment of Philip as Head of Aircraft Leasing Coverage further bolsters our commitment to supporting those operating within the sector. Philip's wealth of sectoral knowledge leaves him well placed to drive HSBC's already strong offering in this area."

HSBC initially established a corporate banking business in Ireland in 2006, as part of a Europe wide expansion of the HSBC Banking footprint.

HSBC also has a significant funds management and administration business in Dublin. HSBC Ireland employs in excess of 350 people, including a number of Global Function Heads at its headquarters at 1 Grand Canal Square.
